International Women's Day – 2026 Celebration

Shri V. R. Patel Commerce College, Mehsana, organized a meaningful celebration of International Women's Day on 9th March 2026 under the initiative of the College Women Development Cell (CWDC). The primary objective of the program was to promote awareness among female students about financial literacy and empower them to make informed financial decisions in their personal and professional lives.

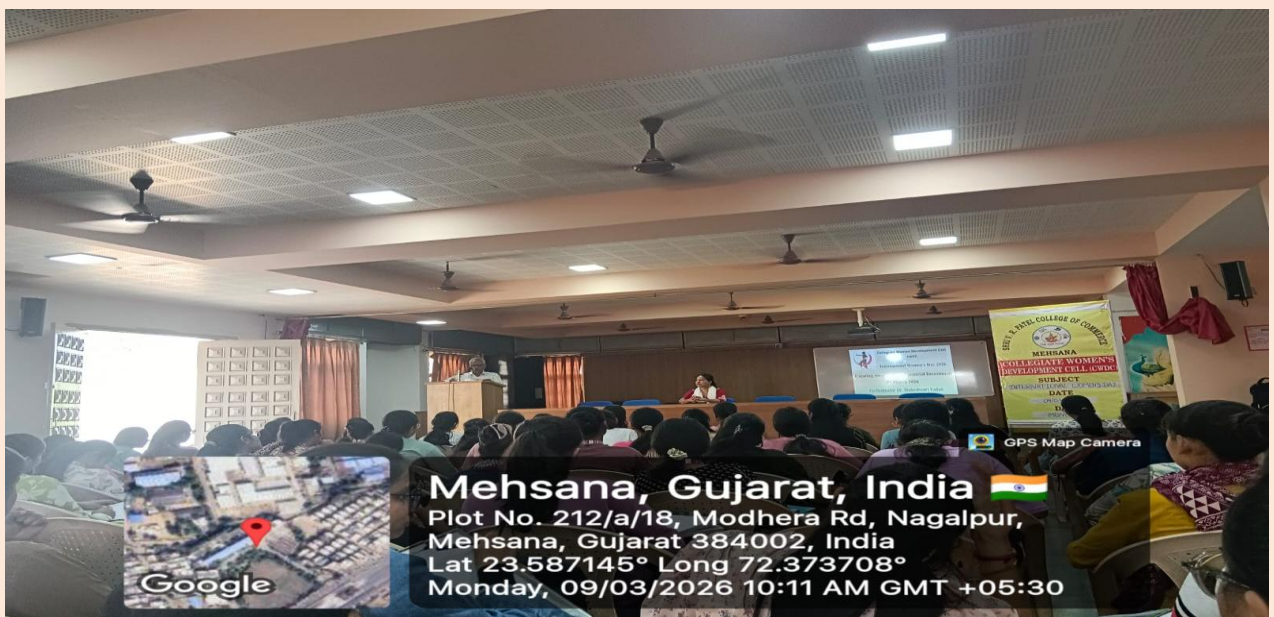

On this special occasion, Mr. Nikhilbhai Dani, a well-known and experienced financial analyst from Mehsana, was invited as the keynote speaker. He delivered an insightful session focusing on the importance of financial awareness, especially for young women. Through practical examples and easy-to-understand explanations, he introduced students to the basics of financial planning, saving habits, and various investment options.

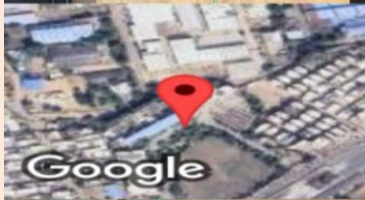

More than 80 female students actively participated in the program. The session proved to be highly informative and engaging, as students gained valuable knowledge about managing personal finances, understanding risk and returns, and planning for a secure financial future. The speaker also emphasized the significance of early investment and disciplined financial behavior, helping students realize how financial independence contributes to overall empowerment.

The event was successfully organized and coordinated by Dr. Maheshwari Yadav, Coordinator of the Women Development Cell, under the able guidance of the Principal, Dr. J. K. Patel. Dr. V. B.

Patel also extended valuable support and contributed significantly to the successful execution of the event. The celebration not only marked the importance of International Women's Day but also served as a platform to inspire and educate young women towards financial independence and self-reliance.
